

PSALM 27

ONE Sabbath peace and health be with you!

ALL And also with you!

ONE Let us pray: God, You are our saving light,
the bright dawn in our long night.
There are no shadows that can scare us.

ALL You are a fortress protecting our lives;
nothing will frighten us!

ONE We ask one thing from You—it's all we seek:
to live in Your house all the days of our lives,
our eyes full of Your beauty, finding joy in Your presence.

ALL You will shelter us with Your presence during times of trouble;
You will hide us in a secret place in Your home;
You will place us up on a high rock, safe from the floods.

ONE We hold our heads higher than the enemies surrounding us;
we offer You our lives in worship.

ALL Our sacrifices are shouts of joy!
We will sing praises to You.

ONE God, hear our voices as we cry out!
Have mercy on us and answer us.

ALL Our hearts urge us to seek Your face.

ONE We long to see Your face—please don't hide it from us!

ALL You will never push us aside in anger.
You will never leave us,
because You are our salvation! Amen.
